The students Information handbook has been prepared to guide and facilitate orientation of students at the Mombasa Campus. The handbook covers areas of interest to new students and for reference by the older groups of students. It contains messages from the director and the school coordinators as well as the dean of students. It also provides information on common courses, crucial information on the Student Management Information System and Student Portal, Library System and Bookshop. Also covered is information on Student Welfare services available under the Assistant Dean of Students Office, University Health Services (Clinic) and Sports and Games Department. The final section details rules and regulations governing conduct of students including and Student Government and Professional Associations. Important telephone numbers have been included in the appendices.

This handbook is expected to be useful to new students during the orientation as well as for the continuing students as a reference. Please do not hesitate to call on the relevant staff for assistance and more information.
