

UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND EXTERNAL STUDIES
CENTRE FOR OPEN AND DISTANCE LEARNING

SUBJECT: ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CENTRE FOR OPEN AND DISTANCE LEARNING

1. Introduction

The Centre for Open and Distance Learning was established in 2005 with a mandate to enable the University of Nairobi to diversify its delivery modes, enrich the learning process and increase access to quality university education by using open, distance and e-learning modes. Its mission is “A Centre of Excellence in Open, Distance and e-Learning”

Its Mission is ‘To provide and maintain equitable opportunity for accessing quality university education, which embodies the aspirations of humanity, through the use of multimedia, consultancy and research in open and distance learning’. Its Vision and Mission are fulfilled through collaboration with internal Schools and Faculties. During the year 2013 the Centre was involved in the activities outlined in this report.

2. Flagship Projects

The Centre in collaboration with the School of Education mounted two Flagship Programmes namely Master of Education in Planning and Administration and Master of Educational Foundations using open, distance and e-learning modes and a Bachelor of Education in IT to contribute to the fulfillment of Vision 2030 objectives. These programmes were launched on 20th Jun.2013 in a ceremony where the guest of honour was the Vice Chancellor who was represented by the Ag. DVC (AA) Prof. Henry Mutoro. Centre developed in collaboration with the School of Continuing and Distance Education a roadmap for a new Flagship project-Master of Arts in Peace Education to contribute to the fulfillment of Vision 2030 objectives.

University Choir

DVC (AA) Prof. H. Mutoro
Representing the VC at the launch

Participants at the launch of Med Admin & Med Found

3. Capacity Building for Development of self- Instructional Materials and Learner Support

The Centre was involved in Capacity building for developing self instructional materials and Learners support. The centre conducted 8 print involving 240 academic staff and e-learning self-instructional materials workshops and 7 face to face and on-line learner support with representation from all the six (6) colleges of the university.
(PHOTOS)

4. Instruction Materials Development in print and e-learning

From the capacity building in self-instructional materials development the centre developed 142 instructional all of which have been converted and uploaded on the e-learning portal. The distribution by colleges is as follows:

• College of Education and External Studies	77
• College of Health Sciences	46
• College of Humanities and Social Sciences	20
• College of Biological and Physical Sciences	9
• College of Agric and Vet Sciences	3
Total	142

The titles of the modules are available in the CODL Newsletter

5. Participation in Events hosted by the College and Conferences

- i. J.O. Odumbe and Dr. Charles Wafula facilitated the development of self instructional materials for Biosafety programs at the ministry of Health
- ii. J.O. Odumbe and Dr. Charles Wafula Presented a Paper on Utilization of Open and Distance Learning in addressing Educational Challenges: Case of the Flagship Project Initiatives of the University of Nairobi at the Academic Conference in the School of Continuing and Distance Education held at Kikuyu Campus on 18th April, 2013
- iii. The Director and the Coordinator Participated in DETA 2013 Conference 31st Jul to 2nd Aug held at Kenya Science Campus and presented on: Vision 2030, Operation of the Centre and Use of Distance education in meeting challenges of Teacher Education in Kenya

Coordinator CODL, Dean SCDE & Director CODL
At DETA 2013 Conference at Kenya Science

Ag. Deputy Principal Kenya Science and President of Commonwealth of Learning at the DETA 2013 Conference at Kenya Science

6. Collaboration and Consultancies

The Centre collaborated with Laikipia University, Moi University and Rongo University College in capacity building for self-instructional materials and conversion of materials to e-learning mode in workshops held at Morendat Conference Centre, Pinetree Hotel Eldoret and GRABO Hotel Migori

Director CODL and the DVC AA Laikipia University at Morendat

IT Committee briefs
Cabinet Secretary

Director & DVC AA Moi University on National Open University of Kenya

Consultation on e-learning Solution Tablet
At Arziki Chiromo Campus 3rd Aug 2013 and demonstration at Multimedia Conference Centre

Director in Somaliland for accreditation of Sheik Technical College.

7. Development of Strategic Plan for 2013 2018

Stakeholders at the Strategic Plan Principal CHSS and MD UNES at close of Workshop

Workshop Outcomes were: A comprehensive Strategic Plan for the Centre for July 2013 to June 2018, clear recommendations for financial and operational policy revisions and general recommendations for enhancing Open, Distance and e-Learning delivery in the University .The workshop was closed by Prof E. Njeru, Principal of CHSS on behalf of Prof. Peter M.F. Mbithi DVC (A&F). who appreciated the work of the Centre.

J.O. Odumbe
Director, CODL